Early Years Farm Trip

This week, Early Years had a school trip to Gorse Hill farm. Although it was cold, we were lucky that the rain held off all day so we could fully enjoy petting the guinea pigs and rabbits, pond-dipping and, everyone's favourite, feeding the goats and sheep. We also got to see cows, pigs and alpacas! Everyone had a lovely, despite it being windy and muddy!

I liked looking at the goats and their big horns.' Thatcher C

Year 6

Year 6 performed their Eid assembly on Wednesday. We discussed what Eid means to Muslim's and the reason why they celebrate. The children shared their own experiences of celebrating Eid. They re-enacted the story of Prophet Ibrahim and shared some of their artwork.
